Laminates

Layered in Luxury.

Laminates are durable, stylish surface materials used for furniture, walls and countertops. They offer a wide range of colors, textures and finishes—perfect for modern interior design.

Acrylic

Acrylic laminate is a lightweight, durable, and crystal-clear plastic known for its glass-like appearance and high impact resistance, commonly used in modular kitchen, wardrobe and exclusive furniture.

Louvers

Let your space
Breathe.

Louvers are angled slats designed to allow air or light to pass through while blocking rain, direct sunlight or noise. Perfect for ventilation, privacy and modern architectural aesthetics.

Veneer is a thin layer of natural wood applied to surfaces to give furniture and interiors a premium, elegant wooden finish while maintaining cost-effectiveness and durability.

Veneer

PU Wall Panel

PU (Polyurethane) Wall Panels are Decorative wall coverings made from high-density polyurethane. Ideal for both interior and exterior applications, they offer an easy-to-install, cost-effective alternative to real stone, with excellent resistance to moisture, weather and impact. Perfect for walls, facades and accent areas.

Moulding Patti

Moulding Patti is a decorative trim used to enhance the edges, corners and transitions of walls, ceilings, doors or furniture. Made from materials like wood, PVC or WPC, it adds a stylish finish while concealing gaps and joints. Ideal for both modern and traditional interiors.

False Ceiling

ACP

ACP (Aluminium Composite Panel) sheets are lightweight, durable cladding materials made from two aluminium layers bonded to a non-aluminium core. Known for their sleek appearance, weather resistance and easy maintenance. ACP sheets are ideal for modern building facades, signage and interior applications.

POP

Transform your space with elegant POP designs that add depth, style and character to any interior. From sleek ceilings to artistic wall accents, our craftsmanship blends modern trends with timeless charm. Durable, customizable and flawlessly finished—bring your vision to life with POP that truly makes your interiors stand out.
